June 2005

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

Howdy Folks,

Well she was a bit muddy on Sat. but we could not have asked for a better day to shoot Sunday, lots of sun and a whole lot of good friends to shoot with. There was more food than we could eat, that is except for Slim, there never be that much.

I think that we had 6 new shooters with the one fella all the way from Granada that's down around Lamar Colorado, came back after visitin with us last month. Don't know what it takes to scare people off, hope we never find out.

The Annual is coming upon us, you folks that plan to attend it's time to get your registration's in, don't wait until the last minute. As you know we will close the signup 10 day's before the match and will not, will not sign up anyone at the last minute.

There will be at least two or three more work day's depending on what we get done on the 12th of June. So stay tuned as to when. Slim and Deek have been looking over the different things that we need to do and got a handle on most of it.

The July match Fun shoot will be a good time with some extra stuff for all, so come on out.

Until next time may God bless all of you.

Keep your powder dry.

SHAKETAILES AT END OF TRAIL

Several of our Shaketail shootin' pards went to the End of Trail at their new digs down in New Mexico at the end of April. Seems like everyone had a good time. We even had one of our own bring back an award. Yes, Burgundy Ballou came home with a First Place belt buckle! Would it surprise any of you to learn that she won the prize as the best Soiled Dove at the EOT camp?

To hear her tell it, sounds like she didn't even know what was happening. She was just walking along in her everyday duds and wandered into the camp saloon. The folks there didn't figure her for the school marm, and they got her to telling some tall tales about her shady life in the Tin Cup Saloon up in Leadville. The next thing you know, they had declared her the best "Soiled Dove" they had ever met anywhere. Guess it pays to go with your strengths. Anyhow, congratulations Burgundy Ballou!

SHAKETAILE JULY SWAP MEET

We've been getting a lot of new shooters around the Shaketail Territory, and I think most of them enjoy their new sport. Most of these folks would probably like to add to their wardrobes and equipment stores. There are also a lot of old hands who have basements and garages full of stuff that they don't need anymore, but would like to see it put to good use. Lucky for all of you, we've decided to have a Swap Meet at the end of shooting at the July match.

You old-timers might want to look around for those hats and vests that don't go with your "look" anymore, or the gun belt that doesn't quite meet at the buckle. Ammo, brass, leather, grips, etc. might catch the fancy of some of the new folks who want to add to their cowboy character. Make any deal you want amongst yourselves, sell or trade. There's no charge to participate, but a donation to the House would be greatly appreciated.
