FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

Howdy Folks,

Those that missed the shoot missed another real good one. Walker out did himself again. Not sure where he keeps coming up with these new ideas but keep them coming.

First a reminder to all the BLGC open house is this Saturday and starts around 9am. So everyone come on out and enjoy the free food and drink and give the other disciplines a try.

The annual is just around the corner and as usual the registrations are coming a bit on the slow side so I encourage all of those that what to share in our XIXth Annual to get your papers sent in so that we may get a count on the needs.

Lead Chef will be gracing us with her expellant fare again this year. She has been more than a blessing to all of us with the dedication of cooking for our annuals the last two years, this will make number three and are we blessed. Thank you and May God Bless you Lead Chef.

As you may be aware of we are a bit late with the work days this year again but it seems that a certain small group of outsiders want to stick their noses into our business and cause trouble which puts us behind.

This is the second year of this. Shaketails will be looking at how to better manage things so as to avoid these disruptions in the future.

When another club deliberately sanctions the disruption of another by deceptive means, just maybe they should step back and take a look at themselves and grow up. We should all support our sport not personal agendas.

God Bless All

Keep your Powder Dry

Yaro
