

Cowboy Action Shooting!

Colorado Shaketails

The Colorado Territory's Oldest Cowboy Action Club

WANTED: Shooters looking to have fun!! Whether you're interested in learning about Cowboy Action Shooting™ or you're an old pro looking for a club, come on out and visit the Colorado Shaketails. You'll go home with a smile on your face. The 1st match is FREE!!!

WHEN: We shoot the 1st Sunday of every month year-round and we hold a three day annual match the 1st weekend in August. There's a pot luck after the monthly shoots.

WHERE: Shoots are held at the Ben Lomond Gun Club located near Ramah about 43 miles NE of Colorado Springs or 45 miles SE of Castle Rock. Directions are available on our website <http://www.shaketails.net/>.

WHAT: Cowboy Action Shooting™ is a multi-faceted shooting sport in which contestants compete with firearms typical of those used in the taming of the Old West: single action revolvers, pistol caliber lever action rifles, and old time shotguns. The shooting competition is staged in a unique "Old West" style. It is a timed sport in which shooters must test their mettle against steel targets. A unique aspect of Cowboy Action Shooting is the costuming and adoption of a shooting alias appropriate to a character or profession of the late 19th century or a Hollywood western star. More information is available at the Single Action Shooting Society (SASS) website <http://www.sassnet.com/>.
